Description

A Yamaha R3 ABS registered in 2020 (20), with 9,692 miles and presented in very clean condition throughout. The R3 is a lightweight and easy-to-ride sports bike, making it a great option for newer riders as well as those looking for something practical and enjoyable for everyday use. The 321cc twin-cylinder engine provides smooth and responsive performance without being difficult to manage. The riding position gives the bike a sporty feel while remaining comfortable enough for road use. ABS also provides added reassurance when braking, particularly in changing road conditions. This example has covered 9,692 miles and has clearly been well looked after. It presents very well for its age and starts, runs and rides exactly as it should. A clean and practical Yamaha R3 that offers a good balance of performance, economy and easy handling. Contact us today for more information, finance options or to arrange a viewing.
