Description

This 2026 Toyota Yaris VVT-h Excel is a rare find, having covered only 5 miles from new with just one owner. As a 1.5L petrol hybrid model, this vehicle combines efficiency with modern convenience, sitting on 17in black machined-face 5-spoke alloy wheels. Inside, the Excel trim offers a range of technology designed for ease of use, including Bluetooth connectivity and a smart entry system with push-button start. Drivers can also manage the cabin environment remotely using the MyT app to control the air conditioning, while the full range adaptive cruise control assists with maintaining a steady speed on longer journeys. The performance of this Yaris is defined by its balance of power and economy, achieving a 0-62mph time of 9.2 seconds. It stands out for its
